Retirement of Trial Judge

It was announced at the Queanbeyan and District Dog Training Club Obedience & Rally O Trial that Ritchie Butler will be retiring from being a Trial Judge.

Ritchie retires with over 40 years judging experience. He has judged in most states and territories in Australia, including a tracking trial in Darwin, with different clubs and in all weather. Everyone that has had the privilege of competing in his ring have walked away with a smile as Ritchie not only has been one of the best judges but, has brought to his ring his advice and also his fantastic humour which is legendary.. He is also a past President of QDDTC.

The Club greatly appreciates Ritchie for judging at our trails that we have held at the club. The committee, instructors, members and all of the trailers wish Ritchie all the best and wishes him a happy retirement from the judges' ring, you will be missed.
